

Summer Dance Is Going Strong!
Here's what's happening

The Week of July 13

The 2nd Children's Camp-Style class wraps-up on Thursday with a mini-performance for family and friends. This group of dancer children on the "dancer couch" is too cute for words!

Rehearsals for the Ashland Regional Ballet performance with the Ashland Symphony are underway.

The Summer Teachers and dancers are fully engaged in the summer schedule.... and it feels good.

The Week of July 20

Guest Choreographer Erich Yetter will be in residence. He will teach Advanced Ballet and create a new choreography for Ashland Regional Ballet dancers. It is sure to be an intense week of classes and choreography for Ashland Regional Ballet dancers.

Through-out this week all regularly scheduled classes will continue with no changes to the schedule.
